

Old Lane Allotment Association Newsletter No.15 July. 18

Internet Visits

Since the beginning of the year.... Our website has had 476 visitors with over 3,758 views

Good News

This year rents will be payable at the beginning of October for 2018/2019 but the rents will stay the same as this year. There are no Leeds City Council rent increases nor any cost of living rises.

The Young shall Inherit.....

Depuy Synthes (volunteers) have started a gardening club working with Hugh Gaitskell School on plot 40. Activities are every Wednesday between 12 and 2.30 pm. There will be 2 x school teachers on site and Depuy volunteers to supervise the children aged seven and ten.

Please make them welcome. Catch them young and they will become hooked for life.

Profile of a Plot Holder

Tony Spelman

q.1 Plot number?: 57

q.2 How long a plot holder?: 14 years

q.3 Why did an allotment appeal?
As a younger farmer in Ireland when a plot became available I was delighted to be able to relive most of my childhood memories

q.4 How does your allotment benefit you?
Fresh veg most of the year around also allows friendships to develop old and new.

Price Comparison 3

Fish Blood and Bone

B & Q £1.24 per kilo
Wilco £1.00 per kilo
Us £0.70 per kilo

You know it makes senseBuy from Old Lane Allotments

This was taken last week on plot 10. An old vixen, I think, who limped away with utter disdain that she was disturbed.

Democracy

The Committee meets on the first Sunday of each month. If you have something to raise please put it in writing and leave in the suggestion box in the toilet area.

Newsletter help

If you want to write or advertise relevant material for the newsletter please contact me on 07900324479.